We will meet at the Mathematikzentrum at 14:00 and walk together to Bonn Hbf. From there, we take tram line 66 to Königswinter Fähre (about 30 minutes). Then we hike up to the Drachenfels (approx. 45–60 minutes walking time, depending on pace).

We expect to be back in Bonn around 18:00–19:00, depending on the group and the pace of the hike.

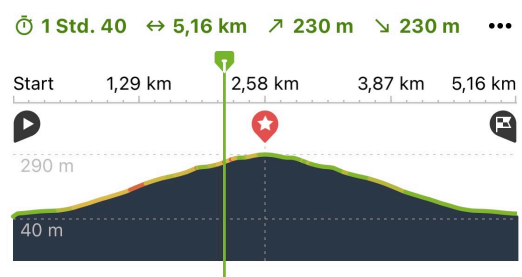

Tickets: A VRS single ticket (price level 2b) costs €4.85 one way. The ticket is valid immediately after purchase, so please only buy one ticket at a time. Ticket machines are available on the platform and also inside the tram. Holders of the Deutschlandticket can use it for this trip.
